- 1.2.13 In the event of a payment default on any amounts due by the Purchaser, the Purchaser agrees that Accredited Support Professionals (Pty) Ltd. trading as ASP Fire shall be entitled to recover all legal and administration costs, including attorney and client costs, related to the recovery of unpaid amounts from the Purchaser.

1.3 Contract Period

- 1.3.1 Each contract period is estimated in working days from the site establishment date.
- 1.3.2 The offer is based on the assumption that all contract works can be carried out on a continuous basis during normal working hours and that free and reasonable access to the protected areas or equipment is provided.
- 1.3.3 Should the works be delayed and / or the contract prolonged or accelerated due to any circumstances whatsoever beyond the Supplier's control, resulting in lack of continuity of site work or necessitating the Supplier having to leave site and re-establish, all additional costs, including but not limited to standing time, overtime, accommodation and travel, shall be borne by the Purchaser.
- 1.3.4 In the event that any delay of the abovementioned kind occurs, the Supplier shall, without delay, give notice to the Purchaser or his representative and where required, raise a variation order.
- 1.3.5 A detailed schedule of works can be supplied, if required, upon issuing of a Purchase Order or Contract, reduced to writing and signed by the authorized representatives of both parties.
- 1.3.6 This proposal in its entirety shall be considered as accepted, valid and binding on the Purchaser where a purchase order is raised by the Purchaser, or where payment is made to the Supplier by the Purchaser without a Purchase Order based on the information contained herein, regardless of whether this proposal is signed by the Purchaser or not. A handover document signed by a representative or employee of the Purchaser shall be deemed to be acceptance by the Purchaser of the works having been carried out in accordance with all of the terms and conditions set out herein.

1.4 Guarantees

- 1.4.1 All supplied equipment carries a 12 month OEM guarantee, unless stated otherwise, subject to equipment maintenance carried out by the Supplier at the required intervals.
- 1.4.2 Damaged caused by misuse, negligence, the use of non-potable water supplies, ground subsidence, inadequate foundations, lightning or electrical power surges are excluded from the guarantee.
- 1.4.3 Installation of goods by the Purchaser where goods are supplied on a supply only basis are excluded as these are installed in circumstances beyond our control.
- 1.4.4 All workmanship carries a 12 month guarantee.
- 1.4.5 The workmanship guarantee on repaired or serviced equipment is limited to components that have been replaced or repaired. This excludes existing client equipment that is removed and refitted during the normal service or repair process.
- 1.4.6 No consequential damages or liabilities are covered under these guarantees. The guarantees are limited to the removal, replacement or repair at the Supplier's discretion and the refitting of the equipment, or making good of workmanship, covered under this guarantee.

1.5 Legal & General

- 1.5.1 The Purchaser hereby warrants that it has a turnover in excess of the statutory amount as published from time to time in terms of the National Credit Act; that it is a juristic person; and that it is not a consumer; for any purpose contemplated in the National Credit Act.
- 1.5.2 Any person signing this Proposal thereby binds themselves as surety and co-principal debtor to the Supplier in their own capacity in the event of any default in payment by the Purchaser, such suretyship to be limited to the amount in this Proposal, plus the applicable VAT.
- 1.5.3 No variation, amendment or addition to or of these terms will apply unless specifically agreed to in writing by ASP Fire.
- 1.5.4 Each and every term, clause, or part thereof, herein contained shall, in the case that it is found to be unenforceable, be severable from each and every one of the other terms, clauses or parts thereof.
- 1.5.5 No relaxation or indulgence by the Supplier in respect of any of its rights or any of the Purchaser's obligations shall constitute a waiver of such rights or obligations.
- 1.5.6 These terms and conditions and the proposal of which they form part, upon acceptance as set out in clause 1.3.6 above, constitute an agreement, which agreement is made in terms of South African law as at the date of acceptance.
- 1.5.7 The rule of construction in terms of which an ambiguity is interpreted against the drafter does not apply to this Proposal or these terms and conditions.
- 1.5.8 The Consultant's maximum aggregate liability to the Client under, pursuant to or arising out of this these terms and conditions shall not exceed an amount equal to the aggregate of the Fee and any Additional Fees.
- 1.5.9 In the event of any breach of these terms and conditions the Consultant shall be liable to the Client for the reasonable costs of repair, renewal and/or reinstatement of any part or parts of the Project to the extent that the Client incurs such costs, limited to the quantum of fees paid to the Consultant, but the Consultant shall not be liable for any other losses incurred by the Client, whether directly or indirectly as a result of the breach.
- 1.5.10 The Consultant's liability under these terms and conditions shall be limited to that portion of the Client's losses which it would be just and equitable for the Consultant to pay having regard to the extent of the Consultant responsibility for the same and on the basis that all other consultants and contractors engaged by the Client in relation to the Project shall be deemed to have provided undertakings to the Client on terms no less onerous than those contained in these terms and conditions and shall be deemed to have paid to the Client such proportion which it would be just and equitable for them to pay having regard to the extent of their respective responsibilities.
- 1.5.11 No actions or proceedings for breach of these terms and conditions may be commenced against the Consultant following the date that is six years after practical completion of the Project (or termination of the Consultant employment under these terms and conditions if earlier), but without prejudice to actions or proceedings that have been referred to adjudication or commenced in the courts prior to such date.
- 1.5.12 None of the provisions of these terms and conditions shall operate to exclude or limit the Client 's liability for death and/or personal injury and/or fraudulent misrepresentation.
- 1.5.17 The provisions of these terms and conditions shall apply to liability of the Consultant howsoever arising, whether in contract, in tort, pursuant to statute or otherwise and including in respect of negligence.
